Changes in net revenues were primarily driven by:

- Primatene Mist [®] sales increased primarily due to increased unit volumes
- Glucagon sales increased due to an increase in inventory levels, which allowed us to fill orders for the back-to-school season and meet the corresponding seasonal demand
- Epinephrine sales increased by $3.3 million due to an increase in average selling price, with the remainder of the increase due to increased unit volumes as a result of competitor shortages
- Phytonadione sales increased due to a combination of an increase in unit volumes and a higher average selling price
- Lidocaine sales increased primarily due to an increase in units of the injectable version
- Naloxone sales decreased primarily due to a lower average selling price
- Other finished pharmaceutical product sales changes were primarily due to:
 - Lower unit volumes of atropine and calcium chloride, largely due to competitors returning to their normal distribution levels
 - An increase in unit volume for dextrose, which was in high demand due to competitor shortages
 - Launches of ganirelix and vasopressin, in June 2022 and August 2022, respectively
- Active Pharmaceutical ingredient ("API") sales decreased primarily due to the timing of customer purchases

Changes in the cost of revenues and the resulting increase in gross margin were primarily driven by:

- Increased sales of higher-margin products such as epinephrine, Primatene Mist [®], phytonadione, and glucagon, as well as the launches of ganirelix and vasopressin in 2022
- These factors were partially offset by overall increases in labor costs, as well as increases in costs for heparin, the starting material for enoxaparin

- General and administrative expenses increased primarily due to an increases in legal and compensation expenses
- Research and development expenses increased due to:
 - Increases in expenditures for materials and components, primarily for our AMP-018 and insulin products candidates
 - An increase in clinical trial expense primarily due to external studies related to our insulin and inhalation product pipeline
 - The increase was partially offset by a decrease in expenses in China due to the completion of the restructuring of Amphastar's Chinese subsidiary, Amphastar Nanjing Pharmaceuticals Co., Ltd. ("ANP"), in 2021
- The change in non-operating income (expense), net is primarily a result of a $13.6 million gain on the deconsolidation of Hanxin Pharmaceutical Technology Co., Ltd related to the ANP restructuring in 2021

Cash flow provided by operating activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2022 was $74.0 million.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

To supplement its consolidated financial statements, which are prepared and presented in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), the Company is disclosing non-GAAP financial measures when providing financial results. The Company believes that an evaluation of its ongoing operations (and comparisons of its current operations with historical and future operations) would be difficult if the disclosure of its financial results were limited to financial measures prepared only in accordance with GAAP. As a result, the Company is disclosing certain non-GAAP results, including (i) Adjusted non-GAAP net income (loss) attributed to Amphastar and (ii) Adjusted non-GAAP diluted EPS attributed to Amphastar's stockholders, which exclude amortization expense, share-based compensation, impairment charges, legal settlements, and other one-time events in order to supplement investors' and other readers' understanding and assessment of the Company's financial performance because the Company's management uses these measures internally for forecasting, budgeting, and measuring its operating performance. Whenever the Company uses such non-GAAP measures, it will provide a reconciliation of non-GAAP financial measures to their most directly comparable GAAP financial measures. Investors and other readers are encouraged to review the related GAAP financial measures and the reconciliation of non-GAAP measures to their most directly comparable GAAP measures set forth below and should consider non-GAAP measures only as a supplement to, not as a substitute for or as a superior measure to, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP.
